PROPOSAL FOR CHANGES TO THE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE HISTORY MA

The History Department has voted to approve the following changes in the History MA requirements:

1. All MA students must take at least one 500-level elective that is designated research-intensive.
2. HST 691/695 Research in American/World History is no longer required for all MA students.
3. HST 701 Thesis is 6 credits rather than 3.
4. Students must complete at least 18 credits at the 600/700 level, not including HST 710 Teaching Practicum or TCC 711 Thesis Continuation.
5. Students who earn an A or A- on the thesis will have their theses bound and placed in the library.

SIDE-BY-SIDE COMPARISON

#13 08-09 GC Changes to History MA Program
OLD PROGRAM			NEW PROGRAM
		Credits			Credits (If student takes HST 701 (Thesis))	Credits (If student DOES NOT take HST 701 (Thesis))	Comments
HST 600	Intro to Hist Study	3	HST 600	Intro to Hist Study	3	3
2 600-level Electives		6	2 600-level Electives		6	6
3 Electives in major field		9	3 or 4 Electives		9	12
3 Electives in the minor field		9	3 Electives in the minor field		9	9
HST 691 or HST 695		3					No longer required. Becomes elective
HST 700 or HST 701	Integrative Essay or Thesis	3	HST 700 or HST 701	Integrative Essay or Thesis (now 6 credits)	6	3
TOTAL CREDITS		33			33	33
Other Restrictions
At least half of the credits must be at 600-level			HST 701 becomes a 6-credit course. At least 18 credits must be at 600-700 level (Excluding HST 710 and HST 711)
			Must take at least ONE 500-level elective "research intensive" course. This is a new requirement.

Effects of these changes

- The majority of MA students take HST 700 Integrative Essay (3 credits) as their capstone experience. These students would have an extra elective, which could be HST 691/695 or another course.
- Students who write a thesis, which requires a 3.67 GPA and faculty permission, almost always already use HST 691/695 to prepare for the thesis. They would get 6 credits for the thesis instead.

Rationale

- Students improve their primary research skills in a 500-level research-intensive course.
- Students who choose HST 700 Integrative Essay do not need the extra time on research (691/695). Many are teachers who are better served by taking an extra elective course in a subject they teach.
- The extra time required to write a thesis is rewarded with more credit compared with the comprehensive essay.

- Since HST 691/695 is done as a directed study with an individual faculty member, the current requirement puts considerable strain on faculty. The MA program has 84 students and at present each has to take at a minimum two independent/directed studies.
- The department has changed from grading theses as S/U to giving them a letter grade. We would like to keep the standard of published theses available outside the College high, and reward excellent work with a privilege.
